Remember to wear your name badge, bring Comfort Quilts, Show and Tell, and Block of the Month. When it's your turn, bring snacks.

See you September 26, 2022 (In Person)

From our MLQG President-Trudy Bauman

Ladies of MLQG,

Well, we made it through another month. It was touch and go there for a while. The calendar said Fall but the temperatures said Mid-Summer. I hope everyone found a way to stay cool. I seem to remember, oh so many years ago, that the first day of school (it used to be the day after Labor Day) was always the hottest. I would be wearing my Bobbie Brooks, wool plaid skirt and matching cardigan set. Oh, how I suffered! But I did look cute.....

This is a reminder that our quilt show is next month. Next Month! If you haven't signed up to volunteer, the September meeting is your last chance. We have to make up for missing our quilt show in 2020 so we need all hands on deck. Let's make this the quilt show of all quilt shows. See you at the meeting!

Country Store Heather Beers

Well, it's less than a month away and we have our Quilt Show. Personally, I am super excited for numerous reasons. This is the first show I have ever completed something to show, it has been a long four years, and the Country Store will be busting at the seams with wonderful items for people to buy.

We have over 24 flowing tubs of fabric that need to be sorted and priced. There are going to be some great buys ladies. We have fourteen flowing tubs of hand-crafted items. Last but not least, we have over a dozen tubs of assorted items that have been donated. Ladies, I haven't even been to the storage yet! Crazy but this could be a record setting Country Store if we all show up with our checkbooks. Lots of great buys on fabric, notions, and handmade items. Start your Christmas shopping while you are there.

I am excited by all the wonderful items that have been donated. We could use a few more bowl cozies.

Stay cool and make sure you share with all your family and friends.

Quilt Show Anelie Belden

The inspiration for our quilt challenge will be the front cover of a magazine. Choose any magazine that inspires you. It could be a travel, food, gardening even quilt magazine. Use anything on the front cover to come up with your design.

Project Must be quilted. 100" Maximum circumference. Can be smaller. This can be a table runner, wall hanging or small quilt, it is up to you. Magazine should be on display with the quilt.

Block of the Month Row by Row Quilt – Row 5 & 6 Dawn Schaaf – Anelie Belden

We will continue to work on Rows 5 & 6 until after the quilt show. These are the paper pieced Birds and Posy Flowers.

Thanks to everyone who has joined in to make this a success!!

Mother Lode Quilters' Guild

General Meeting

August 22nd, 2022

Officers present were President Trudy Baumann, Vice President Sherry Phinney, Secretary Terrie Van Scyoc and Treasurer Carlene Drake.

The meeting was called to order at 6:31pm.

Membership - Members present were 25 and 6 guests.

Secretary – Terrie read the following correspondence; the guild received an invitation to visit Meissner in Sacramento for the Quilt Con display that will be visiting. There will be an evening open house on Thursday Sept. 1st from 5-7pm. The July meeting minutes were approved as printed in the newsletter. We also received bookmarks from two different guilds promoting their upcoming shows. River City Quilt Guild will have their show on September 23-25 at the Scottish Rite Center in Sacramento. The Pioneer Quilters Guild of Roseville will be November 12-13 at the Roseville Sports Center.

The July meeting notes were approved by the membership as printed in the newsletter. A motion to approve was made by Bunny Smith and seconded by Mar Douglas.

Visiting Opportunity Quilt – The Loomis Quilt and Fiber Guild brought their Quilt named Main Street Log Cabin.

President – Trudy took time to point out the involvement of members and many tasks that have been accomplished for our upcoming Quilt Show. Rita Maddock and team whose hundreds of hours have been put into designing and building a new rack system. The quilt show committee with their many hours of meeting and planning, Mary Beth Porter and her group for sewing the rack backdrop muslin pieces. This group is planning another sew day at Mary Beth's Church on Saturday 8/27. Terrie Van Scyoc for donating the muslin. Heather Beers and her work on the Country Store items and patterns. And of course, all of the other members and their contributions of quilts and items to be sold or placed in baskets. It truly takes all of us to get a show off the ground.

Treasurer – Carlene reported $561.00 income from sales of tickets at the Amador County Fair. The checkbook had a current balance of $9258.89

Vice President – No speaker, as all Quilt Show entry paper work was due to be turned in tonight. Ice Cream Social this month. September will be our meeting to wrap up any last-minute items before the Quilt Show, so no speaker. October will be our Quilt Show review, totals and income report. Carlene is planning a presentation on Temperature Quilts. We will also present members running for guild elections. November will be our elections and our Holiday Potluck dinner.

Library Display– Anelie collected items for the Small Quilt display for the month of September at the Amador County Library in Jackson.

Row by Row block of the month - Anelie gave a report of the Aug. 20th class she gave on paper piecing. We will not review a new row until November as there is a lot to do on the two rows due next and Quilt Show will dominate much of our time. Members work on your rows for show and tell in November at our Holiday Potluck!

Town Merchants – Ulla and Anelie reported that all but one merchant on Main Street Sutter Creek were interested in hanging a quilted item. Ulla collected them from members tonight and will distribute before the 1st of September.

Quilt Show – Anelie gave a report on the quilt show progress. She has brought signs, postcards and flyers for all members to take and disburse throughout the county. Members were encouraged to take multiple signs. Anelie collected paperwork for the Challenge Quilts. You may also email your entry paperwork to her and turn in your Challenge on Friday of the Quilt Show with regular entries.  A Challenge form is included in this newsletter. Silent Auction entries and paperwork can be turned in any time to Terrie, or turned in on Friday of the Quilt Show. A Silent Auction form is included in this newsletter. Golden Threads Quilt Show Oct. 1st and 2nd 2022

It is almost here... QUILT SHOW!!!

Make sure that your calendar is clear for the weekend of October 1st and 2nd so that you can volunteer to help.

Jenny Lyons is our Featured Quilter! Jenny will be presenting her beautiful machine quilted creations.

Quilts - Entries and photos were due at the August meeting. Finish those quilts now to eliminate pre-show stress.

Gift Baskets - Baskets are all arranged and ready for the Quilt Show. We have 31! And they are lovely. A great big thank you goes to Lorrie and Rebecca Albin for giving their time and creativity to arranging and organizing all of the items. The rest of the donations will go on to the Country Store to sell.

Country Store Heather is working on going through all of the items made and donated for the Store.

Quilt Challenge Our Challenge this show is based on inspiration from the cover of a magazine. Your imagination is free to create. The items must be small, 108" total circumference or less. An entry form is included with the Newsletter this month if you need one. You may turn in the paperwork to Anelie at the September Guild meeting and bring your Challenge to the Quilt Show to submit on Friday, 9/30. The Challenge is on!!!

Silent Auction - Terrie has included an entry form for your Silent Auction items with this Newsletter. You may turn in your items and paperwork to Terrie at the September Guild meeting. We need between 20 and 30 items to have a successful Auction, and we have 10 turned in so far. Our Guild is not large but we are always able, through the help of volunteers, to put on a great quilt show! Please help us to make this a reality once again this October 1st and 2nd!

Along with volunteering to take on a committee, which is fun and a great experience, all members can also help contribute to the show by doing the following;

Make one or two quilts to display in the show

Make items to sell at the Country Store

Make an item to donate to the Silent Auction

Quilt Show Committee: Anelie Belden, Mary Bush, Terrie Van Scyoc, Dawn Schaaf, Heather Beers, Donna Swanner, Rita Maddock and Trudy Baumann
